

June 2024

Greetings from the Academic Advising office. We are happy to announce completion of fall schedules for the first-year class at the College of Saint Benedict and Saint John's University (CSB and SJU)!

If you previously viewed your schedule, be sure to look again as there may have been recent changes. Instructions for accessing your schedule are included below.

It is each student's responsibility to thoroughly review the First-year Student Registration Helpful Links on the Academic Advising website:

- Explanation of schedule
- Frequently asked questions
- Sample schedules by major or pre-professional program
- Language placement exams for French, German, and Spanish
- AP and IB policies
 - If we have received your AP scores and your scores qualify you for academic credit at CSB and SJU, your courses will be displayed on Banner on your Academic Transcript.

Your schedule was carefully constructed to reflect your intended major, pre-professional interests, language placement, and academic background. In some cases, curricular requirements necessitate enrollment in specific courses.
