

Join us on Friday, October 11

1985 (film screening)

When an adventurous Hmong teen discovers a secret map to a mythical dragon, he and his three best friends decide to go on a quest that leads them on a journey filled with danger and excitement.

This film is directed and produced by Kang Vang, a filmmaker who has worked in the media arts field for over 10 years. He focuses on issues that affect the communities of color.

Moderators: Dr. Carol Brash, Dr. Deborah Pembleton, Lucy Vue

6:30pm Social: Culhane Gallery—Alcuin Library Lang. Lab
(located outside of the World Language Center)

7:00pm Movie: Alcuin Auditorium 170
(followed by discussion)

Sponsors: Asia Club and Asian Studies Program